Greetings

Dear Friends,

Greeting from the Organizing Committee of the annual state chapter conference of Delhi IRIA: Delhi Imaging Update which is being organised along with our popular flagship conference Ultravision 2021!

It is our privilege to invite you for the first in person (hybrid mode) conference after a long and challenging time in the past 2 years with 'pandemic and online fatigue' setting in. We would once again like to meet you in person for this event being held with all Covid appropriate measures in place at the Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam Auditorium, Institute of Liver and Biliary Sciences (ILBS), Sector D-1, Vasant Kunj, New Delhi to be held on 18-19 Dec 2021. More than 500 delegates are expected to attend this event in hybrid mode.

The seating capacity has been limited to half the auditorium capacity, as per government guidelines and hence there is limited seating!

Do register in advance for the in-person attendance. We assure you that this would be the unforgettable experience and event of the year!

The first day (18th December, Saturday) would be dedicated to Ultravision, with student's scientific proffered papers and exhibits. Focus would be on turf expanding applications of ultrasound in obstetrics with relevant fetal sonography and interventions. The overall objective is to augment the volume and enhance quality of ultrasound practice, especially for obstetrics and gynaecology.

We have brought together a galaxy of very eminent speakers, who are masters of their chosen field. Their knowledge and practical tips as well as teaching style shall provide new insights, tips and tricks to overcome the challenges in daily ultrasound practice and to learn new concepts with updated guidelines.

The second day (19th December) has been dedicated to Delhi Imaging update, which will be comprise of an assemblage of the best teachers, who are masters in their fields and will be taking masterclasses covering a wide spectrum of radiology. This would be a salute to the yearlong masterclass series which were organized weekly by the state chapter, free of cost, for the benefit of its members and the fraternity.

Needless to say, this conference is the beginning of a new phase of our academic and professional lives where we will all be able to personally network, informally interact and bring back the camaraderie amongst all delegates and faculty.

Latest equipment by the trade shall facilitate opportunities for enhancing business for delegates as well as trade partners.

Delhi state chapter assures you and warmly welcomes all delegates and faculty of the finest hospitality, in a safe environment.

The reduced registration charges are valid till – December 4th 2021

Waiting to see you!! Be there!
